Судалгаанаас үзэхэд өөрт хандсан хандлагатай оюутнууд нь бүлгээс хамааралтай, багаар ажиллах сонирхол бүхий хандлагатай оюутнуудаас илүү байна.

Дүгнэлт

- Нэгдүгээр дамжаанд элсэн суралцагчдын өнөөдрийн чиг хандлага нь өрсөлдөх сонирхолтой, өөрийн байр суурийг эрхэмлэсэн шинжтэй байна.
- Ихэнхи тохолдолд хүмүүст чин сэтгэлээсээ тусламж үзүүлэх эсвэл ганцаараа тодорхой даалгавар биелүүлэх болон багаар ажиллах чадвар сул байгаа нь ажиглагдаж байна.
- Иймд зөв төлөвшил, эерэг хандлагатай, хамт олонч, нөхөрсөг, үнэнч шударга, итгэлтэй байдал, сэтгэлээсээ туслах, хүндэтгэх хайрлах зэрэг хандлага бүхий оюутнуудыг бэлтгэх нь чухал байна.

A STUDY ON DETERMINING ATTITUDES OF INDIVIDUALS OF INDIVIDUALS

Abstract

A person is a human being that develops into individual. An individual connotes individualism and properties that are unique to person. Individual differences are found in all physical abilities, knowledge, habits, personality and character traits. Personal development is founded humans at an early age and develops throughout their lives. Therefore, personal development is influenced by the background of childhood, the innate psychological characteristics of the individual, education, work experience, community atmosphere, and close circle of friends. The individuals are product of society and history. The process of personal development is the result of a comprehensive educational work.

For the transition to a system in which the quality assessment of higher education is based solely on the use of knowledge, the ability to analyze and summarize knowledge, the ability to evaluate results, and the development of creative thinking are outlined in a policy document by "HIGHER EDUCATION POLICY AND PLANNING 2016-2020" of the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science.

This study was conducted to determine in the enrollment of new students in training professionals with the right attitudes and knowledge in accordance with the requirements of the comprehensive competence of medical professionals.

The following survey was conducted to determine the individual attitude of the first year students of the Medical School in Darkhan-Uul aimag. The current tendency of the first year students is to be competitive and to value their position.

-In most cases, there is a lack of ability to provide sincere assistance to people, to perform certain tasks alone and to work in a team.

Therefore, it is important to prepare students with the right and positive attitude, teamwork ability, friendliness, honesty, trustworthiness, and sincere.
